

TARRED AND FEATHERED
FOR DEFILING THE FLAG

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 2.—After being given a mock trial, at which he was accused of pro-Germanism and of defiling the flag, William Sailer, fifty-six years old, well known here, was tarred and feathered last night by a group of more than twenty-five men clad in white robes.

Sailer was seized about two blocks from his home by six men, who pushed him into an automobile and drove to the golf links, two miles west of the city, where a score or more men were waiting. After the assault Sailer was driven back to within a block of his home and deposited on the sidewalk.

DRIVE AWAY HEADACHE

Rub Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

Judge Hyman also issued a statement last night in which he charged that the Queensboro Corporation, described as a "client of Mr. Mitchell," had been granted a tax assessment reduction recently of $1,033,000, "approximately one-third of the value of all its property." This, he said, was the corporation which "paid Mr. Mitchell, when President of the Board of Aldermen, a $5,000 fee for the $100 job of drawing a mortgage."

It was further alleged by Hyman that about the time the mortgage was drawn "Mr. Mitchell lobbied through the Board of Estimate an extension of the subway which was of immense value to his client—that he obtained sufficient votes 'to put the job through.' Judge Hyman repeated charges previously made by District Attorney Swann and denied by the Mayor concerning a European trip made by the Mayor in company with William H. Reynolds and others.

Notes in Society

One of the most important weddings of the present season will be that of Miss Jane N. Morgan, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, to George Nichols, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. T. Nichols of No. 43 West 11th Street. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at the Morgan home, at Madison Avenue, Glen Cove, L. I. Only relatives and a few intimate friends of both families will be present. The wedding will be followed by a reception and breakfast.

The Stage Women's War Relief gave its first party yesterday afternoon in the ballroom of the Biltmore and cleared several hundred dollars for the society. Between dances there were bits of entertainment by the Dolly Sisters, Rosina, Beth Lody, Helen Ware, Florine Weston, H. H. Morgan, and others. Sam Cori and Carter Delaney.

Mrs. Edward Parker Wood announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Julia Montgomery Wood, to Andrew Jones of this city. Miss Wood is the daughter of the late Commander Edward Parker Wood, U. S. N., who commanded the U. S. S. Petrel at the Battle of Manila Bay.

The engagement is announced of Miss Louise E. Flint of No. 118 East 14th Street, niece of Dr. Austin Flint, to James L. Hubbard of Norwich, Conn., of the Naval Reserve.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Schultz of Florida, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Julia Schultz, to Lieut. Howard Conklin of the 16th United States Infantry.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Stearns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stearns, to Mr. John W. T. Nichols, A. D. C. Royal, will be celebrated to-day in Holyoke, Mass., will take place this afternoon in Calvary Church.

Previous to the concert for the Soldiers and Sailors Christmas Fund in Carnegie Hall this evening, a dinner will be given at the Colony Club by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oliphant for Mrs. James W. Wadsworth Jr., President, and Mrs. Robert Lansing, Secretary, of the National Association Opposed to Woman's Suffrage.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris of the Majestic Hotel announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Rita Leola Harris, to Archer N. Rodney of this city.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Nicol, daughter of the Rev. W. H. Nicol, and Lieut. Warren W. Bayler, U. S. N., will take place to-day in the Morgan Memorial Chapel of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

The first of a series of War Relief Assemblies will be held to-night at the Automobile Club of America, No. 247 West 54th Street.

No German Opera
At Metropolitan.

By Sylvester Rawling.

THE day is east. There will be no German opera at the Metropolitan Opera House this winter. Announcement of the fact was authorized by the directors yesterday. Their decision was not unexpected. Subscribers had anticipated that with the first publication of a list of Americans killed in the trenches in France, operas sung in the German language would come to an end. It is true that the decision is made before the opening of the season. Possible unpleasantness thereby is avoided. The public will not concern itself with the provisions of existing contracts between German singers and the management. That matter will be settled privately. The season will start a week from Monday with the alacé clanc.

Raymond Wilson, a young pianist from Syracuse, gave a recital at Aeolian Hall yesterday afternoon. His programme included the Chopin sonata, opus 15, and Schumann's "Scenes from Childhood." We have been accustomed to hear these compositions played by the master pianists of the world. Mr. Wilson showed courage in tackling these difficult pieces, and played with sincerity, freshness and no mean technical skill. His art is promising.

There was a song recital at Aeolian Hall last evening by Lola Long, soprano, and Franklin Riker, tenor, that furnished pleasant entertainment. Miss Long's voice, which is of a rich, clear quality, was heard to good advantage in selections usually were within its compass. She sang French, Russian, German and English songs, the latter including two "Negro Spirituals" by H. T. Burleigh. Mr. Riker started with Beethoven's "Adelaide," a severe test of a singer's quality, not always satisfactorily met. In songs by Edward MacDowell, F. M. R. Class, Edward Horman and himself he was happy. Together they sang duets by Schumann, Saint-Saens and Mr. Riker. Edward Falck was the accompanist at the piano.

The New York Community Chorus, beginning to-morrow evening, will give a series of song rallies for soldiers, sailors and civilians in the 71st Regiment Armory. If they prove practicable, the plan will be adopted for cities near all training camps. A week from to-morrow Major Gen. Bell of Camp Upton will speak. To-morrow the Camp Upton Military Band will make its first New York appearance.

A chorus of 600 sailors from the Brooklyn Navy yard will make their first appearance as singers to-morrow evening at the Hippodrome Naval Relief League benefit.

"Songs of the Soldiers and Sailors," the Army and Navy song book, is off the Government press and is being distributed in the cantonments and training stations. The collection represents the accumulated experience of song leaders who have been working among the men, and of members of the National Committee on Army and Navy Camp Music.

Christine Langenhau, soprano, at her recital next Friday evening at Aeolian Hall will bring a group of English songs by the late New York composers and a group of Slavic songs by Dvorak in the original Bohemian. Miss Langenhau is a Bohemian by birth.

Mme. Schumann-Heink, who will give her only New York recital at Carnegie Hall this afternoon, has notified the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. that she will give one-half of the proceeds of the concert for the work for enlisted men. The Y. M. C. A. is about to open a campaign for $25,000,000 for its war work, of which a woman committee, headed by Mrs. Arthur Curtiss James, has become responsible for $2,000,000 in this city.

The Biltmore Friday Morning Musicals will begin next week. The artists announced are Geraldine Farrar, Rita Fornia of the Metropolitan Opera Company, Richard Bulling, pianist, and Herman Sandby, cellist.

Efrem Zimbalist, the distinguished violinist, will give his only New York recital at Carnegie Hall to-morrow afternoon.

Frances Alda of the Metropolitan Opera Company will give a recital at Carnegie Hall on Tuesday evening, Nov. 13, for the benefit of "Le Bien-Etre du Blessé" and the poor and sick children of the American soldiers.

The Halcyon Singing Society is re-organizing its chorus, for twenty-five years a male chorus, into a mixed chorus, thus making women who are

In Misery With

"I saw Cuticura Soap and ointment advertised and wrote for a free sample. I bought more, and after using two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and three cakes of Soap I was healed." (Signed) D. McMillen, State Firemen's Home, Hudson, N. Y., April 9, 1917.

Prevent further trouble by using Cuticura Soap for the toilet.

For Free Sample Each by Return Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. H, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c.

Good sight readers eligible for the augmented chorus. It is planned to take up the more ambitious oratorios and cantatas. The main chorus moves for rehearsal Tuesday evening at the Young People's Branch of the Educational Alliance, Stuyvesant and Ninth Streets. Young men and women under eighteen are invited to join free of charge.

Charles Cooper, pianist, will give a recital at Aeolian Hall on the afternoon of Election Day.

Pupils of Isadora Duncan and the Barre Little Symphony will give matinees at the Liberty Theatre on Nov. 15, 16, 20, 22 and 24.

Prof. Samuel A. Baldwin will give free organ recitals at the City College on to-morrow and Wednesday afternoons at 4 o'clock.

PROCTOR VAUDEVILLE
AND LOEW FEATURES

Vaudeville and photo plays will be offered at Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre, commencing Monday. On Thursday the bill will be changed. "Wanted, a Model," a one-act musical comedy, and Mabel Burke in songs will be among the eight acts offered at Proctor's 23d Street Theatre. Proctor's 88th Street will have Rubini and Martini, Florence Parker and company, Gordon and Rico, Swan and O'Day and Johnny Clark. At Proctor's 125th Street Theatre will be Ollis, Young and April; Barry McNamara and company, Ivy and Ivy, and McLeelan and Caroon.

"Lincoln of the U. S. A." a dramatic sketch dealing with Lincoln's life, will head the vaudeville bill at Loew's American Theatre. Other features will be Middleton and Spellmeyer in "An Ocean Wailing," Elizabeth Mayne and Mabel Harper. A new New York Theatre photo plays will be "The Manx Man," Monday. "The Secret of the Storm Country," Tuesday and Wednesday; "Fighting Back," Thursday; "Up or Down," Friday; "The Adventures of Carol," Saturday, and "Outwitted," Sunday.

230 HONOR LEGION MEN
AT SCHMITTBERGER'S BIER

Coffin Borne by Six Giants of Traffic Squad—Mayor at Cathedral Service.

Two hundred men and thirty officers of the Police Legion of Honor, led by Inspector John P. Dwyer, their breasts covered with medals of valor, formed the right of line of the escort at the funeral this morning of Chief Inspector Max F. Schmittberger. The cortege left the residence of the deceased, No. 227 East 61st Street, at 9:30 o'clock and proceeded to Fifth Avenue and to St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Walking behind the three chaplains of the department were Police Commissioners Woods and Deputy Commissioners Goelet, Dunham, Bouill and Case. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated at the Cathedral. Father John J. Coogan eulogized the deceased, taking for his text: "I have fought a good fight." Mayor Mitchell attended the services at the church.

Preceding the Police Band were Inspectors Cornelius F. Cahalane and Joseph Conboy and 200 police on foot, and Inspector Thomas, at the head of 100 mounted men. The honorary pallbearers were Inspectors Daly, O'Connor, Kelly, Boettler, Bolan, Tierney, Ryan and O'Brien. The coffin was borne to the hearse by six giants of the Traffic Squad.

The dead Chief Inspector was buried in his uniform, with his medals awarded to him during his more than forty years service, adorning his breast. The house was filled with flowers.

After services at the Cathedral the cortege proceeded to 73d Street along the avenue, where all but the Inspectors paid their last tribute to the dead. The Inspectors accompanied the body to Woodlawn Cemetery.
